Paris Horse and Carriage Ride

Hop on board a traditional 19th century horse-drawn carriage, lean back and discover some of Paris' most iconic monuments. This fun-filled means of transportation and sightseeing tour will take you back to the mid-19th century, when cars, subways and buses did not exist. Can you imagine a city filled with horses and carriages? It must have been very noisy at that time! Yet this horse and carriage ride is probably the most relaxing way to visit a small part of the city.

Just like in the past, the friendly coachman will remain silent, but will point out the iconic highlights of Paris, such as the Eiffel Tower, the Invalides and its famous golden dome, and the most beautiful avenue in the world: the Champs-Élysées. This one-hour tour will leave your family with unforgettable memories.
