Savor a farm-to-table al fresco lunch and a walking tour of Zionltes, a 15-acre certified organic farm in the cool, slow moving hills of St. Ann. A breathtaking landscape, where things move slowly, and luxury resides in simplicity and a connection to the earth. Walk the grounds as you harken back to ancestral origins, when plants were your medicine, and the earth’s bounty your food. Engage your senses with the herbs, spices, fruits, birds, flowers, and ornamentals. Take in the sweeping views of the north coast, and the beauty of the hills. Then sit down to a lovingly prepared meal that highlights the local, weaves simple flavors into joy on a plate, and brings you back to what real food tastes like.

Craving more? This trip can be combined with a morning stop at the famous Dunns River Falls in Ocho Rios near the lush hillsides where this organic farm is located. It is best to visit the water falls early before big tour groups arrive. You can have shower and use changing facilities to freshen up before lunch.
