Munich Food Walking Tour (4 hours)

Meet your Munich expert in your hotel lobby and depart for your gourmet food tour.

Visit the famous Viktualienmarkt, a true Munich tradition dating back to 1807, where local merchants showcase their artisanal wares to include sausages, cheeses, baked goods and an assortment of Bavarian delicacies.

Explore Manufaktum with its wide assortment of breads and baked goods, makes for fun shopping of food items and handcrafted products.

Visit Confiserie Mäser Luksch: A local chocolatier where you can sample delicious hand-made pralinés and their famous chocolate creations.

Stop at Dallmayer, the gourmet grocery store which has been purveyor to various royal courts and aristocratic households over its three centuries tradition. Here you will find regional specialties and its own line of coffees and teas.

Stroll Eataly, Munich's latest addition to the foodie scene. Located in a former 19th grain warehouse, sample savory nibbles, cold cuts, pastas, and enjoy a freshly brewed espresso.

Further option: Private visit at an ancient mill

Enjoy a tour of a 19th century mill located in the heart of Munich, formerly the Royal Malt Mill, where flour is ground as it was over 100 years ago. Then see how the flour is made into bread and other products before continuing on to the local shops in the area to sample a selection of local Bavarian and Germany delights. (by appointment only)
